

CBCF Banquet with Restoration Expert, Jeff Homsher

Saturday, May 31, 2025

The CBCF sit-down banquet will be held in the renovated Chateau Hotel and Conference Center's ballroom., 1621 Jumer Drive, Bloomington, IL 61704

Reserved British-Car Parking will be adjacent to the hotel's Conference Center.

Cash Bar

- Individual Charged on a per drink basis. Mixed Drinks, Cordials, Domestic Bottled Beer, Imported Bottled Beer, House Wine

Dinner Selections*

- Chicken Breast Parmesan: Baked, boneless chicken breast with fresh parmesan cheese served over
- Bourbon Sirloin Steak: Grilled sirloin served with bourbon demi glaze.
- Dietary Dish Option – Vegetable Lasagna *
*Anyone that needs vegetarian, gluten free, dairy free etc., let us know when you pre-register and chef will make them a special meal that fits within their restrictions

*All Dinner Entrées Include are served with a fresh garden salad, vegetable du jour, potato du Chef, baked dinner rolls, coffee & tea, and dessert.

Jeff Homsher, Owner, It's Alive! Automotive

Jeff Homsher, owner of It's Alive Automotive, will be our banquet's Guest Speaker. You're sure to enjoy Jeff's unique perspectives on all aspects of classic car repair, restoration and marketing classic British and European cars.

"With 40 Years in St. Louis of buying, selling, repairing and restoring classic cars, the IAA team of experts is experienced in making every transaction stress-free and fun; the way it should be. They specialize in European Sports Cars, Exotic Sports Cars and Classics."